BILLION DOLLAR SCRIPT - AGENT DAY 1

📞 INTRO -

Hey (client name) can you hear me? This is (your name) I was getting back to you for the final expense and life insurance options, you're still in (state) right? Okay great, I had your file put on my desk here and it shows your DOB as (verify info) Is that correct? I'm just the medical underwriter assigned to your file.

Now price aside, I'm assuming your main concern is like most of the veterans we help, either to leave something extra behind for your family, or was it just to make sure your final expenses are covered?

1. "Are you with the VA?"
   Actually sir/mam, the VA isn't a life insurance company, I'm just a medical underwriter here that has been contracted out to help people like yourself and make sure you and your family are in the best possible position. Now that being said, who would be the beneficiary responsible for picking up the pieces when you pass? (proceed back to script and end with a question)

2. VETERANS: "When I pass away, the VA will take care of my burial. AKA Veterans think they are getting buried for free."

I completely understand, but that's actually a common misconception that veterans get buried for free. I wish that was the case.. If it was up to me all veterans should get put to rest at no cost! But unfortunately, too many veterans actually don't know what the VA covers for them when they pass away. The VA just covers your plot and tombstone but your loved ones would be responsible for your burial/cremation, service, and viewing. That being said, god forbid something happened to you today, who would be responsible for the funeral expenses and picking up all the pieces tomorrow? (ONLY COVERED IF 100% DISABLED VET)
Then go back to the script…

Link: https://www.benefits.va.gov/compensation/claims-special-burial.asp

3. I don't remember filling this out!"

- I completely understand sir, I don't remember what I had for Breakfast yesterday chuckle , MOST veterans, or veterans loved ones, typically fill this out for one of three reasons:
  1. They're just looking to cover any funeral expenses, that way it doesn't fall a burden on their loved ones.

2. Looking to cover any mortgage, debt or loans that they don't want to leave behind for their family
3. Lastly, just looking to leave a little extra money behind for the people they love.. Which one was it for you?

4. "I'm not interested!"

Oh no worries sir, well just to update the file and take you off the list here, do you already have your funeral expenses taken care of or not yet? Then go back to the script…

5. "You are the 10th person that has called me!"

Oh yeah perfect no worries, it just looks like your file is still open on our side. So let me do you a huge favor and get this closed out, did you already set up something to cover your funeral expenses or not quite yet? Then go back to the script…

6. "I already have coverage in place"

Got it, I do see that here.. I'm assuming that's just to leave something extra behind for the family. Is that correct? Perfect, So I'm assuming you're like most veterans. Your main goal is to make sure that (beneficiary name) won't be forced to spend out of that current life insurance. You'd rather have something SPECIFICALLY designed to cover the funeral, is that correct?

"This is not a good time or I'm busy!"

I got you sir, we're extremely backed up as well here, this usually only takes 5-10 minutes to get taken care of now you listed your date of birth as _____ is that correct?

For Agent: Only if they are driving or at work don't proceed the call.. Ask for the best time to reach them. Ask if they were wanting to focus on burial or cremation before ending the call.

"Can you send it in the mail?"

Yeah absolutely the policy packet is going to be mailed in 10-14 days. We just need to find something that's going to fit your needs. That being said, who would be the beneficiary picking up the pieces?

DIG INTO WHY!!!

Now god forbid, when you pass away who will be the beneficiary responsible paying for the funeral expenses & picking up all the pieces tomorrow?

- What is their name? Ok, is that your (assume relationship)?
- IF WIFE: How long have y'all been together?
    - Dang! That's quite some time… you got any tips for a young buck like me?
    - Haha okay I'll keep that in mind.
- So since you guys have been together for a little while, I'm assuming she kinda trusts you as the leader of this household to put this together for the family, is that right?

Have you thought about whether you wanted to be buried or cremated?

- Do you know how much that costs nowadays?!

● Cremation: 5-10k depending on the celebration/urn.
● Burial: 15-20k depending on the fanciness of the service & the opening/closing.

- Is (beneficiary) in a good financial position to cover a funeral expense or is that why you were looking into this?

So if you passed away yesterday, what would that look like for (beneficiary) would they have to set up a GoFundMe, pass the hat around the church or what would she do?

Do you have anything currently in place like a life insurance policy or a significant savings that would help offset the cost of that funeral expense?

- IF NO : So it sounds like since you don't have anything as of today to cover those final expenses, your goal is to put (beneficiary name) in a situation where you don't leave a financial burden behind when you do pass away. Is that correct? Ok perfect we'll see if we can help you.*
- IF YES: What makes you feel like you need more coverage in place?

- So I'm assuming you're like most veterans. Your main goal is to make sure that (beneficiary name) won't be forced to spend out of that current life insurance. You'd rather have something SPECIFICALLY designed to cover the funeral, is that correct?

Client Suitability Sheet -

So (client name) the way this works is a pretty simple process. I'm just going to go over a few questions here on your health which is part of the MIB report. That stands for the MEDICAL INFORMATION BUREAU. From there, we'll look at a few plans that take care of your goals, obviously that's within the budget, because there is no sense of having coverage if you can't afford it.

Once we find a plan that fits the budget and protects (beneficiary), we'll send in an application, figure out when and how you will pay for the policy, and if you're approved, you'll receive the policy packet in the mail in 10-14 business days. Does that make sense?

This takes you into the client suitability sheet: —->>>>

Income:

1. Now, just to build a rough budget for you, are you currently working or retired?
   (IF retired): I can't wait to say that one day!
2. What would you say you bring in per month just as a ballpark?
3. At the end of month once you pay all your bills, utilities, and all the fun things you like to do. How much would you say you are typically left with? Just a ballpark
4. My job here sir is not to add an additional bill, we are just shifting or reallocating some of what you are already saving so that no matter when that day comes, (beneficiary) is protected. Does that make sense?

For Agent- Little to No Income left over! ($299 or under)
I completely understand, that being said here, every veteran is different, most plans start around $40-60 or $60-80 a month. Is that something that would be affordable for you each month? you want to get a tie down here on what's comfortable for them, don't move on until you do

Push Back #1: Do you mind if I make a recommendation.. I would say some coverage is better than no coverage to alleviate that financial burden. So we can always start with the lowest options available then increase when times get better. If you can't afford $50-$75/mo how do you expect "Beneficiaries Name" to afford that entire funeral expense.. Does that make sense?
For Agent- Income Objection: Why do you need to know that?
Well (client name), there are guidelines I have to abide by in regards to making sure whichever option you choose is gonna be affordable for you based on your income. Sometimes our hearts are bigger than our budgets. Don't worry, I'm here to help you not hurt you! (chuckle)

There's two DISCOUNTS you may qualify for:

1. Are you a smoker or a non-smoker?
   Smoker: Do you plan on quitting anytime soon over the next couple years?
   Nonsmoker- Perfect, you qualify for that discount!

2. Do you bank with a military branch credit union or just a regular local bank? Perfect, I'll check if they're on the state discount list. Who do you bank with? Did you open that in (state)? Perfect, it looks like they are on our state discount list as well.

For Agent: Note the name of the financial institution.

Now a little bit on your health… (circle and write down year)

1. Now, for all of your medical needs do you go to the VA or a civilian doctor? Are all of your prescriptions prescribed through the VA or a civilian doctor?
2. Have you been rushed to the hospital in the past 2 years?
3. Any heart attacks, heart failure, strokes, TIA, or stints in the last 5 yrs? If yes: Roughly how long ago was that? Are you currently on any blood thinners or heart medications?
- If yes: Any Blood thinners: Plavix or warfarin?
- If yes: Any Heart Medications: Nitrostat, nitroglycerin, eliquis?
4. Any cancer in the last 5 years? What kind? How long have you been in remission? (that means cancer free)
5. Any diabetes? If yes: Are you on metformin or insulin*?*
6. Any neuropathy? If yes: are you taking gabapentin?
7. Any breathing complications, or COPD? If yes: Are you taking oxygen or inhaler*?*
8. Any anxiety depression ptsd? If yes: Are you taking prozac or seroquel*?*
9. Any Kidney or liver problems? If yes to kidney: Any kidney failure/disorder or dialysis?
10. Then one last thing.. How tall are you and how much do you weigh?

Does your family have a history of any heart attacks, cancers, strokes, or diabetes? If yes: Got it, I'm assuming that's another reason why you need this now, Right?

Benefits:

Bare with me for 1-2 minutes as I punch all this information into our state system and see what the best option available is for you.

While we are waiting for numbers, go ahead and grab a pen and paper to write down my credentials (NPN and name) & these key benefits so you understand what this plan does for you. (text credentials MAKE SURE THEY GET TXT)
(PULL UP INSURANCE TOOLKITS TO GET QUOTE READY)

1. Write down Immediate coverage: That means as soon as you make your first premium you're covered day 1, no 2 year wait period like most carriers! For example: let's say the coverage goes into effect today, god forbid you get hit by a bus tomorrow, "beneficiary" will receive the full death benefit amount, tax free, no questions asked. Does that make sense?
2. *Write down Locked in: Premium never increases and coverage never decreases! That's why it's always important to lock it in while you still are as young and as healthy as you are gonna be. That way it's as affordable as possible, and it'll never go up.
3. *Write down TAX-FREE: The death benefit, living benefit, are one of the few things that surprisingly we don't have to pay Uncle Sam for, so (beneficiary) can use 100% of that money towards (stated need).
4. *Write down Living benefit: This one is important, IF you get a terminal illness, and the doctor tells you that you have 12-24 months to live you'll have access to 50% of the benefit tax free while you're still living!
5. *Lastly, Write down Permanent coverage: This coverage will never expire on you..even if you get a fountain of youth in your backyard, and you live all the way to 120 years old , it's a guaranteed payout to (Beneficiary). It is a whole life policy.

GOLDEN QUESTION: say as if you forgot to ask

I wanted to ask you, just out of curiosity, what's been holding you back from putting something like this in place in the past. Is it affordability, eligibility, or have you just not gotten to it yet because this does sound important to you…

If affordability: Now (clients name) as long as this is something affordable for you and takes care of (why) is there any reason why you wouldn't want this coverage in place for your family?

If haven't gotten to it yet:

Ya no worries sir, the best time to plant a tree is always 20 years ago, but the second best time is today, wouldn't you agree?

Based on what you've told me the system has built 3 packages of coverage and you can decide on which option makes the most sense but keep in mind we can adjust as you please.
Because the goal here is to find the right amount of coverage, for the best price but at the end of the day it has to be affordable to you. Does that make sense sir/mam?
Can you write down for me BRONZE, SILVER, AND GOLD like the olympic medals.

- The BRONZE* option will cover a basic funeral expense as long as it's not on the fancy end but won't leave money behind for "Beneficiaries Name". That will be (Coverage Amount) for _____bucks/month.

- The SILVER* option, this is the option my last 3 clients went with. That will cover the FULL COST + factor inflation in the future so "Beneficiaries Name" doesn't have to be burdened by any of the expenses whatsoever.. and that will be (Coverage Amount) for _____ bucks/month.

- The GOLD* option is going to guarantee to cover the FULL COST of the funeral and leave some money behind for "Beneficiaries Name".. and that will be (Coverage Amount) for _____ bucks/month.

GOLDEN QUESTION: Based on your situation, I recommend the silver option, but which check would you like to leave for your family?

1. "Can you send it in the mail"

   Yeah that's exactly what we're doing here. You'll have the policy in your hands in 10-14 days. Now, which option will put your family in the best position? If you're like most of my clients, I assume it's the silver option. CORRECT?

2. "I'm just shopping around today!"

I completely understand,* I'm the same exact way, I want to make sure I'm not paying more than I need to for anything. Now the good news is…We do all the shopping for you with all 26 partnered carriers in the country to get you the lowest rate. But Of course our goal today is to make sure you can get approved for it. Does that make sense?

3. “I need to think about it!”

I completely understand that you do need to think about it sir, at the end of the day the carrier has to think about it as well; it's definitely not an overnight decision. Just so I have the proper information pulled up for the next time that we do speak, When you do think about it, is it just about which option to go with, or whether to get the coverage at all?

ALWAYS SAY

Got it. Can I ask you something real quick though… earlier you told me this was important because [insert their why — e.g., you didn’t want (BENEFICIARY NAME) dealing with this alone / you’ve seen what GoFundMe can do / you wanted peace of mind for (BENEFICIARY NAME) Is that correct?

“So here’s what I recommend — we start with the Bronze option. It’s the most basic plan, just enough to make sure your family has something in place. That way, we’re not leaving them exposed, and you still have room to upgrade later.”

“Once the policy arrives and you’ve had time to read everything over, we can always add more. But I’d rather you have some protection locked in for (BENEFICIARY NAME) than none at all.” Do you agree?

Perfect, now what we’re going to do is, we’ll send in a request for coverage and hope to get the approval. I'll be confirming basic information, verifying your health, listing the beneficiary, choosing the effective date, and setting up the method of payment. Does that make sense?

PUSHBACK AGAIN: Sir, if I may ask, if your wife tells you no honey, I don’t want you to get the coverage to cover the funeral expense, are you telling me you're not going to do it?

4. “I need to talk to my wife about this!”

Got it. Can I ask you something real quick though… earlier you told me this was important because [insert their why — e.g., you didn’t want (BENEFICIARY NAME) dealing with this alone / you’ve seen what GoFundMe can do / you wanted peace of mind for your wife].” Is that correct?

“So here’s what I recommend — we start with the Bronze option. It’s the most basic plan, just enough to make sure your family has something in place. That way, we’re not leaving them exposed, and you still have room to upgrade later.”

“Once the policy arrives and you’ve had time to read everything over, we can always add more. But I’d rather you have some protection locked in for (BENEFICIARY NAME) than none at all.” Do you agree?

IF YOU STILL GET PUSH BACK#2: Correct me if I'm wrong sir, you are the one ULTIMATELY paying for this correct? Got it, and you're getting the coverage FOR your (BENEFICIARY NAME) to cover your funeral expenses correct? GOT IT - HERE’S WHAT WE’RE GOING TO DO. WE ARE GOING TO SEND IN A REQUEST FOR THE BRONZE OPTION TO MAKE SURE (BENEFICIARY NAME) IS PROTECTED. I'll be confirming basic information, verifying your health, listing the beneficiary, choosing the effective date, and setting up the method of payment. Does that make sense?

START APPLICATION:

Perfect, now what we’re going to do is, we’ll send in a request for coverage and hope to get the approval. I'll be confirming basic information, verifying your health, listing the beneficiary, choosing the effective date, and setting up the method of payment. Does that make sense?

First page of application:

CONFIRM ALL INFO YOU HAVE ON LEADSHEET IN ORDER

1. Confirm their spelling of first/last. Is that your legal name? And this is exactly how your name appears on your bank statement, correct?
2. Height/weight
3. Mailing address? (house or apartment?
4. I have this phone number on file, right?
5. I have this email on file, is that right?
6. State you were born in?
7. City you were born in? (not asked, we just line up the question like this…)
8. Obviously, you are a US Citizen! (Jokingly, laugh and say i was answering that one for you)
9. And for the MIB report, confirm your social.
   REPEAT SOCIAL

Social Security Objection:

Push Back #1: I completely understand sir, now the only reason they ask for that is that's how they verify your health status, all the prescriptions and health records ARE tied to your social. Does that make sense? Ok, so go ahead with your social.

Push Back #2: I completely understand sir, MOST importantly that's the ONLY thing on your death certificate when you die for them to pay out your loved ones because you can change your name, but you can't change your social. Does that make sense? Now go ahead with your social.

Push Back #3: TEXT Picture of Application**

No worries, do you receive text messages to this phone? I can show you better than I can tell you for better transparency.. (send pic of app). Do you see the carrier name and your name? Does that all make sense now? Perfect, verify your social when you are ready.

Post Social: BREAK The ICE

Perfect… Now what they are gonna do is just validate your identity, and that you're not a crazy robot or anything… chuckle Obviously you're not, we are on the phone right now!

HEALTH: Filler Questions

Perfect, so the next part of the application, I have to ask you a few more medical questions. I know we already know all of it but they just make me ask for the carrier record by law. (varies by client)

1. Do you use anything to help you walk around the house? Such as a cane, wheelchair, scooter?
2. Any oxygen equipment to help you breathe?
3. Any help with daily activities? Like eating, bathing, toileting or dressing?
4. Any COVID-19 in the last 90 days?
5. Any alcohol or drug abuse in your past?
6. Any Alzheimers or Dementia, bipolar or schizophrenia?
7. Any Aids or HIV?
8. Any hepatitis?
9. Any Brain tumor or brain aneurysm?
10. Lastly, do you plan on doing any dangerous activities in the next two years like bungee jumping, skydiving or rock climbing?

Beneficiary: Build The Emotion

1. Confirm beneficiary from earlier..
2. Confirm spelling of name, relationship, and DOB (or age)
3. Confirm the % of death benefit they will receive.
4. If spouse, ask if they want to put a “back up” or “contingent” beneficiary

RECAP THE SITUATION: Got it sir, so just to make sure we have it exactly the way that you want it, god forbid anything happens to you after the effective date: (beneficiary) will receive 100% of the death benefit to (insert need).

Lining Up Banking:

Now, we just need to list a valid method of payment on file… If the policy is to be approved, most families like this to come out whenever they get paid every month whether that's the 1st, 3rd, Second or Third Wednesday of every month. When do you get paid? Perfect, so we will set the effective date of the policy to be on the ___ of every month.

*Start date when they get paid

1. Your name is spelled the same way on your bank account, right?
2. Perfect, and it looks like we are partnered with (bank name). Just to confirm you opened that in (state) right?
3. 9/10 times the routing number that automates is correct. I’m currently seeing (read routing number) on my side. Go ahead and grab a checkbook to confirm it. 90% of the time it is correct but I am just required to confirm.

Google that bank/states routing #

And the account #? Okay, I do have to revalidate that, go ahead and confirm that one more time for me. And is this a checking or saving account? Perfect, give me one moment while the system verifies that information is linked to your name. For your safety and the safety of others.

No Checkbook:

Question 1- Do you get your statements via mail or email?

Question 2- Do you ever login online to check your account balances?

*IF THEY DON'T HAVE CHECKBOOK OR FIND BANK STATEMENT OR FIND ACCT #

No worries, so what we'll do is we'll just add the debit card on file for now and you can always update it later. When does that card expire? (Ask if Visa or mastercard, write down card number, ask for expiration month/yr, and 3 digit CVV on back). MAKE THEM REPEAT IT TWICE. THEN PIVOT TO AIG SIWL or TRANS EXPRESS SELECT. WRITE DOWN ALL INFO AND PROCEED WITH APP.

Bank Objection:

Push Back #1: I completely understand, now quick question (Client's Name): have you ever given or received a check from anyone in your lifetime? Perfect, if you notice at the bottom of every check you'll see the bank's routing and account number because that information can't be used to buy something online or go to your local Walmart and go on a shopping spree. Ok does that make sense? Perfect glad we agree, go ahead with the account number.

Push back #2: Why do I have to give you that banking information now?
I completely understand, so the state is required by law to validate that information provided is linked to your name for your safety and the safety of others. Like I said, nothing is coming out today, you are set up for the social security billing. So this is scheduled for (draft date). Ok, so go ahead with that account number.

Push back #3:

Backup path (card first):
"No worries—we'll put a card on file until the policy's in hand, then switch to bank if needed. When does that card expire?"

Direct call-out (if stalling):
"You told me you want this for (beneficiary name). If we don't finish, nothing is in place. Do you want them protected—yes or no?"

Push back #4:
TEXT PICTURE OF APP

Push back #5:
How did you expect to pay for this?

*IF HUSBAND AND WIFE: LINE TO GET A HIS & HERS! (KIDS & GRANDKIDS)

Alright everything is fully submitted for you so you're good to go. Now I'm assuming you're like most people and want your family to have the same production that you have, right? Would it be pretty tough on you to cover her funeral expenses god forbid something happened to her or does she have something on her already?

Alright (client name), do you want the good news or bad news? Bad news is you're stuck with me for life. Good news is you were approved for the coverage (cut up make a joke or two). Alright (client name), couple things to recap, the coverage we applied for was for XXX and the name of the insurance carrier is XXX. Also, this number we are talking on, this is my direct line, it's the same number my mom calls me on. Anything you ever need in regards to this coverage, I'm always the first person you can reach out to, I'm just a phone call or text away. Lastly, this is important, we always contact the department of insurance in the state and let them know that we have completed the request and submitted an application. The reason we do that is because it should remove you from any kind of lists of solicitations about this coverage. No one will ever contact you about this coverage other than myself or the carrier asking you for any personal information ok. With the internet these days you will still probably get some calls but none will be anything in regard to what we did. So if they say they're my manager, it's incomplete, due for review, etc etc it's just a line of crap from some telemarketer trying to pull a fast one on you ok. We know this coverage is important for you and I don't want to see some random person mess up the coverage for your family alright?

🎯 FINAL TOUCHDOWN

✅ Quick Recap — Just to Lock Everything In:

Alright, before we close everything out, just a quick recap to make sure everything looks correct on your end — think of this as a quick survey. Go ahead and write this down as we go.

1️⃣ Which carrier did we get you pre-approved with today?
2️⃣ What type of policy did we apply for?
3️⃣ How much coverage did we submit you for?
4️⃣ What's the estimated monthly premium?
5️⃣ What's the expected effective date once we're finalized?
6️⃣ And most important… Who's your favorite insurance agent?

Every person I work with gets a unique code word. Let's use your MOS. (IF NO MOS USE SOMETHING THEY'LL REMEMBER)

Before you discuss ANY policy details, always verify 3 things:

1. My name:
2. My NPN: (I give this every call)
3. Your code word: (ex: "11BRAVO")
   If they can't confirm all three, hang up — it's a scam.
